The Directors of Animal Husbandry and Veterinary Services of All States.
The State Regional Transport Officers of All States
The Chairman Railway Board

Sub: Certification under Rule 96 of Transportation of Animals by Railways / Trucks regulating the transport of animals under the Rules of 2001.

Dear Sir,

In order to address cruelities to animals during transportation, the Govt. of India has issued an amendment in 2001 to Transport of Animals Rules 1978 vide amended rules an additional certificate is required to be issued under rule 96 by a person authorized by Animal Welfare Board of India to check the cruelty aspects after the animals have been loaded in Railway wagons / Trucks. The person so authorized shall also verify that all the relevant Central and State Acts, rules and orders pertaining to the said animals including all the rules relating to transport of such animals have been duly complied with and that the animals are not being transported for any purpose contrary to the provision of any law. This certificate is in addition to the Veterinary Health Certificate issued by a Veterinary Surgeon.

The subject is an extension of the revised Transport of Animals (Amendment) Rules 2001, and the Animal Welfare Board of India has recently taken the following decision concerning the authorization of persons to certify the animals prior to transportation by trucks / trains:

It has been decided that a State Government Veterinarian not below the rank of Assistant Director / SDO (District Animal Husbandry Officer) in each district will issue certificates under Rule 96 for transportation of animals in the respective States.

The Chief Secretary / Director Animal Husbandry, State Governments are requested to issue necessary directions to all District Animal Husbandry Officers about this requirement at the earliest. A sample of the certificate is attached as an appendix to this letter.

The certificate issued under the amendment rules ensures that animals are not being transported as pet and other non-essential purposes as provided in the Rule 96-97 of Transportation of Animals (Amendment) Rules 2001 (copy attached) are implemented in letter and spirit.
